Miller, Diane M. (CDC/NIOSH/EID)

From: Diane Horning <guetamina@comcast.net>
Sent: Wednesday, January 18, 2012 11:42 AM
To: NIOSH Docket Office (CDC)
Subject: yes

It is outrageous that we allow these people to suffer without the aid they need to seek the best medical attention and the aid they need to support their families. Please count me among those who agree that:

those who got cancer after being exposed to 9/11 toxins ought to be compensated for their illness.

Sincerely,
Diane Horning
mother of 26-year-old Matthew Horning, WTC I, 95th floor