Appendix O

State Configuration Reports

Protocol Development Task

Place the State Configuration Report here. For new states, this will be created at the installation/training site visit.

Any time a change is made to the data collection procedures (e.g., stratification, experiments, etc.), recreate the report before and after the change is made. Add any new reports here as changes are implemented. Retain the previous reports for reference purposes.