Some of the content of the questions in the survey are sensitive in nature. This research is covered by a Certificate of Confidentiality from the National Institutes of Health. The Certificate of Confidentiality (CoC) protects your privacy by prohibiting disclosure of identifiable, sensitive research information to anyone not connected to the research. This means that the researchers cannot release or use information that may identify you in any action or suit unless you say it is okay. An example would be a court subpoena.

The Certificate does not stop reporting what federal, state or local laws require. Some examples are laws that require reporting of child or elder abuse and threats to harm yourself or others. CIPSEA, explained on the next screen, does protect from this reporting and covers this research. Neither protect from any physical harm to yourself or others that may result from this survey. If at any point you do not feel safe while completing the survey, you can stop the survey and complete it at a later time that is better. There will also be resources available throughout the survey should you feel you need talk with anyone.

This next section asks you some detailed questions about times in your life when you may have ever experienced unwanted sexual situations with anyone, including strangers or someone you knew such as a romantic or sexual partner, a family member, a friend, teacher, co-worker or supervisor, or someone you have known for only a short time. These questions are detailed and the language is explicit, which some people may find upsetting. It is important that we word the questions this way so that you understand what they mean. Your answers will help us to learn how often these things happen. You can skip questions you don't want to answer and you can stop at any time.

Sometimes sex happens when a person is unable to consent to it or stop it from happening because they were drunk, high, drugged, or passed out from alcohol, drugs, or medications. This can include times when they voluntarily consumed alcohol or drugs or they were given drugs or alcohol without their knowledge or consent. Please remember that even if someone uses alcohol or drugs, what happens to them is not their fault.

This next section asks you about situations in your life in which you ever experienced unwanted sex or sexual contact. This means sexual contact that you did not consent to and that you did not want to happen.
[SPACE]
Sometimes unwanted sex or sexual contact happens when a person is unable to consent to it or stop it from happening because they are too drunk, high, drugged, or passed out from alcohol, drugs, or medications. This can include times when they voluntarily consumed alcohol or drugs or times when they were given alcohol or drugs without their knowledge or consent.   Please remember that even if someone uses alcohol or drugs, what happens to them is not their fault.

The next set of questions are about times in your life when someone ever attempted to have sex or sexual contact with you by using physical force or threats of harm but sex did not happen. Examples of physical force are being pinned or held down, using violence or threats of violence, or not physically stopping after you said no. To be clear, we are now asking only about times when sex was unwanted and you did not give consent, and sex did not happen.

Thank you for participating in CDC's study of health and injuries. We realize that some of the topics covered are quite personal and can be difficult to think and talk about. We appreciate your willingness to be a part of this study and want you to know that we recognize the important contribution you have made. Sometimes when people have participated in a study like this, they realize that they are interested in following up on some of the issues that they have been asked about in the study with someone who is professionally trained to deal with these kinds of issues.

Below are some toll-free numbers of resources that you can use now or in the future if you want to speak further with someone.

- You can reach the National Domestic Violence Hotline at 1-800-799-SAFE (7233).
- You can reach the National Sexual Assault Hotline at 1-800-656-HOPE (4673).
- You can reach the National Child Abuse Hotline at 1-800-4-A-Child (422-4453).
- You can reach the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline at 1-800-273-TALK (8255).
