

Our mission is to maximize public health and safety nationally and internationally through the elimination, prevention, and control of disease, disability, and death.