

Benefits of State Implementation

- Increased opportunities to achieve cooperation from clients
- Increased opportunities to better meet client needs
- Earlier detection of disease, preventing potential exposure to others
- Increased training opportunities using integrated training between programs
- More efficient use of resources at state and local level
- Increased trust among local partners and the public at large

