Comedian John Stewart Featured in a New FealGood Foundation
Video to Reach 9/11 Responders and Survivors

The FealGood Foundation announces a special collaboration with comedian Jon Stewart to help those affected by the September 11th terrorist attacks. Mr. Stewart joined John Feal, President and Founder of the FealGood Foundation, in a short video promoting the World Trade Center (WTC) Health Program. The men use humor and personal appeals to describe who is eligible for the Program and how to apply. The video, which was filmed at the 9/11 Memorial Museum, and can be viewed at https://youtu.be/V0Rg27\_qgug

The WTC Health Program provides healthcare for covered 9/11-related health conditions. The Program currently serves over 74,000 people, but it is estimated that thousands more may be eligible. The video collaboration with Mr. Stewart seeks to increase awareness about the WTC Health Program so that people who may be eligible for the Program learn more, enroll, and receive the care they deserve.

“So many people out there could be getting the screenings and the treatment they need to help with 9/11 diseases like asthma, GERD, cancer, and PTSD,” explained Mr. Feal, who is also a member of the WTC Health Program.

The FealGood Foundation hosts workshops across the country to educate the public about 9/11-related health conditions and assist those who may be eligible with enrolling in the WTC Health Program. The new outreach video complements their active grassroots campaign.

“So many people still don’t know about this important program,” explains Mr. Feal. “We meet them when we travel the country, but we hope that this video with Jon Stewart will help us reach many more.”

Mr. Stewart is a well-known advocate of 9/11 responders and all those who are now sick from the terrorist attacks. Along with the FealGood Foundation, he has been a passionate supporter of the James Zadroga 9/11 Health and Compensation Act. Mr. Stewart is also a long-time supporter of the FealGood Foundation.

The primary mission of the FealGood Foundation is to assist first responders, and/or any individual, who may have been injured, physically or mentally, as a direct result of their rescue, recovery, and clean-up efforts at the World Trade Center site following the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001.
