

HIV Resources for Health-Care Providers

CDC Campaign – HIV Screening. Standard Care.

www.cdc.gov/HIVStandardCare 800-232-4636

Information and materials to help health-care providers screen all their patients for HIV

- Provider materials, such as an annotated guide to the MMWR revised CDC recommendations
- Patient education materials in English and Spanish
- FAQs
- Web links

American Academy of HIV Medicine (AAHIVM)

www.aahivm.org 202-659-0699

Committed to supporting HIV medicine health-care providers and ensuring better care for those living with HIV/AIDS

- Credentialing information
- Clinical updates
- Practice guidelines
- Daily reports
- AAHIVM's medical education program

Infectious Diseases Society for Obstetrics and Gynecology (IDSOG)

www.idsog.org 202-863-2570

An affiliate organization of ACOG for professionals in the field of obstetrics and gynecology who are interested in the scientific study of infectious diseases

- Scientific forum through annual conference
- Network of infectious diseases women's health investigators

American Congress of Obstetricians and Gynecologists (ACOG)

www.acog.org 202-638-5577

800-762-2264, ext 354 (ordering materials)

The nation's leading medical specialty society of obstetricians-gynecologists; provides health-care information on HIV screening and treatment for women, including

- Clinical guidelines for HIV testing
- ACOG Committee Opinion No. 411, August 2008
- HIV testing materials for patients

National HIV/AIDS Clinicians' Consultation Center

www.ucsf.edu/hivcntr 800-933-3413

Free, 24-hour telephone service for health-care providers

- Up-to-the-minute information about HIV/AIDS
- Individualized, expert case consultation

Infectious Diseases Society of America's HIV Medicine Association (HIVMA)

www.hivma.org 703-299-0200

Organizational home for medical professionals engaged in HIV medicine

- Searchable database of HIV providers
- State health policy profiles
- HIV/AIDS practice guidelines
- Issue briefs
- Patient resources
- Information on clinical trials

HIV Screening. Standard Care.

HIV Resources for Health-Care Providers and Their Patients

AIDSinfo

aidsinfo.nih.gov 800-HIV-0440 (800-448-0440)

Federally approved information on HIV/AIDS for health-care providers, people living with HIV/AIDS, their families and friends, scientists, and researchers

- HIV treatment and prevention guidelines
- Information on clinical trials
- HIV/AIDS fact sheets
- Spanish-language materials and information
- Link to AIDS Education and Training Centers (AETC) National Resource Center

CDC Campaign – One Test. Two Lives.

www.cdc.gov/1test2lives 800-CDC-INFO (800-232-4636)

Information for obstetric providers focusing on ensuring all pregnant women are screened for HIV

- Materials for providers including due date projection wheel and communication guide
- Downloadable resources for providers and patients such as posters and fact sheets
- Links to relevant Web resources

CDC National HIV and STD Testing Resources

www.hivtest.org 800-CDC-INFO (800-232-4636)

Resources on HIV testing

- Searchable database of HIV testing sites
- FAQs about HIV and HIV testing
- Online HIV quiz
- Spanish-language materials and information

Information for patients who test positive for HIV

National Association of People with AIDS (NAPWA)

www.napwa.org 866-846-9366

Advocates on behalf of people living with HIV/AIDS and provides treatment referrals

CDC National Prevention Information Network (NPIN)

www.cdcnpin.org 800-458-5231

The nation's largest collection of resources and free materials on HIV

- Order free HIV screening materials and other CDC HIV resource kits
- Basic facts on HIV
- Searchable database of prevention and social services
- Spanish-language materials and information

CDC Campaign – Prevention IS Care

www.cdc.gov/PreventionISCare

800-CDC-INFO (800-232-4636)

Information for providers and education materials for people living with HIV/AIDS

- Provider materials, such as screening charts
- Patient education materials in English and Spanish
- HIV/AIDS data and statistics
- Links to online training and support services

HIV Screening. Standard Care.