

FREE

Act Against AIDS

Continuing Medical Education Programs

Sexual History: Skills for HIV Assessment and Prevention

Produced in partnership with Medscape Education this course trains physicians to record sexual history, and explains how it can prevent HIV infection.

Expires: 9/28/2018

www.medscape.org/viewarticle/867877

Preventing HIV Infection in the Primary Care Setting: The Role of Pre-Exposure Prophylaxis (PrEP)

The goal of this activity is to discuss the use of PrEP in the primary care setting, including patient assessment and management, CDC guidelines, and tips for incorporating this into practice.

Expires: 11/16/2018

www.medscape.org/viewarticle/867876

Delivering HIV Prevention and Care to Transgender People

The goal of this program is to educate providers about the latest data on transgender people and HIV, the role of stigma and discrimination in health disparities, and strategies to provide patient-centered care to transgender people.

Expires: 3/4/2019

www.lgbthealtheducation.org/cdctranshealth

Serostatus Matters

A video-based educational program designed to help healthcare providers incorporate routine HIV screening into clinical practice.

Expires: 3/21/2019

courses.elseviercme.com/hiv/602

Advancing PrEP in Practice: Practical Strategies for Everyday Challenges

The focus is to improve recognition among primary care providers of patients who could benefit from HIV pre-exposure prophylaxis (PrEP) medications.

Expires: 9/20/2018

www.medscape.org/viewarticle/880821

HIV Treatment and Care: A Focus on Mental Health and Substance Use

The goal of this activity is to improve care of patients living with HIV who also have mental health and/or substance use disorders.

Expires: 10/23/2018

www.medscape.org/viewarticle/880901

Access more clinician resources online:
www.cdc.gov/actagainstaids/professionals

