

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's
Inside Knowledge: Get The Facts About Gynecologic Cancer Campaign

USE OF INSIDE KNOWLEDGE MATERIALS

Content developed by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's (CDC) Inside Knowledge campaign and presented on CDC's Web site is available for public use exactly as it is found online, without being changed in any way. (See "Restrictions" section below.)

Inside Knowledge encourages individuals, organizations, and companies to use campaign materials to help educate women about the five main types of gynecologic cancer. All Inside Knowledge materials are free for public use and available to print or order through the campaign's Web site:

www.cdc.gov/cancer/knowledge.

RESTRICTIONS

FACT SHEETS, BROCHURES, POSTERS, SYMPTOMS DIARIES, BUTTONS, BADGES, AND PSAS

Inside Knowledge fact sheets, brochures, posters, symptoms diaries, buttons and badges, and public service announcements (PSAs), may not be changed in any way. Adding or removing logos or information to highlight the services provided by an individual, company, or organization would imply endorsement by the Department of Health and Human Services, and this is against federal policy.

IMAGES AND ILLUSTRATIONS

Many Inside Knowledge images and illustrations are copyright protected, and depending on contractual agreements, may not be available for use by non-CDC entities. If you have a question about using an Inside Knowledge image, please send an e-mail message to cdcinfo@cdc.gov.

CAMPAIGN LOGOS

Inside Knowledge is a CDC campaign. Its logo may not be used on materials other than those created and produced by CDC. The campaign logo is not available to third-party organizations for use on independently created materials.
