No H2O: Keep water away from contacts

Don’t rinse or store contacts in water, and avoid showering or swimming while wearing contacts.

Dangerous germs that live in water can attach to contact lenses and cause serious, sometimes blinding, eye infections.