There are four different dengue viruses. You can get dengue up to four times in your lifetime.

Three common symptoms are fever, aches/pains, and nausea/vomiting.

The second infection can be the most severe.

The best way to protect your child is to vaccinate them. Children 9–16 years old who have had dengue can get vaccinated. Three doses of the vaccine are needed for full protection.

Accessible link: https://www.cdc.gov/dengue/vaccine/parents/reasons-to-vaccinate.html

To learn more, visit: cdc.gov/dengue