The Eagle Books

In the original Eagle Book series, a young boy, Rain that Dances, discovers an unhappy eagle. Mr. Eagle is tearful because many of the people in the community are developing a disease called type 2 diabetes. Rain that Dances invites his friends Thunder Cloud, Little Hummingbird, and Simon to hear what the eagle has to say about staying healthy. The great bird assures the children that people can help to prevent type 2 diabetes by eating nourishing foods, being active, and following the traditions of their ancestors.

Coyote and the Turtle’s Dream

In the original Eagle Books stories, Rain and his friends were about six years old. However, in this new story, Coyote and the Turtle’s Dream, they are entering the 7th grade. Once again, the eagle gives a warning to Rain, but this time it is about the disappearance of water on their reservation. Never forgetting the health messages taught to them by the eagle, the kids embark on a mystery/adventure to solve a riddle about ancient fossils that will restore the water’s flow.

Hummingbird’s Squash

In Hummingbird’s Squash, our young heroes continue their adventures under the watchful eyes of Sky Heart, the eagle, and Thistle, the rabbit. In this story, Hummingbird pursues an ambitious plan to grow healthy foods that will help the community prevent type 2 diabetes. Little does she know that Coyote is leading her, Rain, Boomer, Simon and her new “sister,” Arianna, on a path of knowledge that reveals what it means to embrace all of one’s relatives and honor the wisdom of ancestors.

About Diabetes

Diabetes is a disease in which blood glucose levels are above normal. Most of the food we eat is turned into glucose, or sugar, for our bodies to use for energy. The pancreas, an organ that lies near the stomach, makes a hormone called insulin to help glucose get into the cells of our bodies. When you have diabetes, your body either doesn’t make enough insulin or can’t use its own insulin as well as it should. This causes sugar to build up in your blood.

Type 1 diabetes, which was previously called insulin-dependent diabetes mellitus (IDDM) or juvenile-onset diabetes, may account for about 5% of all diagnosed cases of diabetes. The causes of type 1 diabetes appear to be much different than those for type 2 diabetes, though the exact mechanisms for developing both diseases are unknown. The appearance of type 1 diabetes is suspected to follow exposure to an “environmental trigger,” such as an unidentified virus, stimulating an immune attack against the beta cells of the pancreas (that produce insulin) in some genetically predisposed people. Researchers are making progress in identifying the exact genetics and “triggers” that predispose some individuals to develop type 1 diabetes, but prevention remains elusive.

Type 2 diabetes, which was previously called non-insulin-dependent diabetes mellitus (NIDDM) or adult-onset diabetes, may account for about 90% to 95% of all diagnosed cases of diabetes. A number of studies have shown that regular physical activity can significantly reduce the risk of developing type 2 diabetes. The Diabetes Prevention Program (DPP), a major federally funded study of 3,234 people at high risk for diabetes, showed that people can delay and possibly prevent the disease by losing a small amount of weight (5 to 7 percent of total body weight) through 30 minutes of physical activity 5 days a week and healthier eating.

Preface

To all the fans of the Eagle Books, CDC’s Native Diabetes Wellness Program is pleased to present Coyote and the Turtle’s Dream: the Graphic Novel. We hope that our readers enjoy this adaptation of the original youth novel, Coyote and the Turtle’s Dream. The story is shorter, but we have enlivened the plot with new characters and more action. We think you will really like the dream scenes—Rain’s dream of the eagle and a new dream in which our young hero swims with the Great Turtle in her ancient underwater world. Coyote’s encounter with a bad tooth and illustrations of the fossil poaching gang in their hide-out are pretty exciting, too. Needless to say, the graphic novel puts you right in the picture when Rain and his friends bring the eagle’s messages about preventing type 2 diabetes to their school and community.

On behalf of Terry Lofton, our author, and Patrick Rolo, our illustrator, we hope that the “power of words” (and imagery) take you on an adventure with Rain, Boomer, Hummingbird, Simon and Arianna that you will long remember.

Acknowledgements

The Native Diabetes Wellness Program would like to thank the following people and organizations that played a role in the development of Coyote and the Turtle’s Dream: the Graphic Novel.

First, we want to recognize the Tribal Leaders Diabetes Committee (TLDC) for its unfailing support of the Eagle Books project. Buford Rolin, Chairman of the Poarch Band of Creek Indians, Chair of the TLDC and Vice Chair of the National Indian Health Board (NIHB); Judy Goforth Parker, Chickasaw Nation Health System, former TLDC member; and H. Sally Smith, NIHB board member and Alaska Area Representative, former TLDC member, all saw the potential for storytelling as a way to reach children with a message of hope. As a result of their support, children who read the Coyote and the Turtle’s Dream: the Graphic Novel will learn that healthy foods and physical activity can help to promote health and prevention of type 2 diabetes.

Many thanks also go to Indian Health Service, Division of Diabetes Treatment and Prevention, and CDC’s Tribal Advisory Committee (TAC) for their continued partnership and support.

Additionally, the Wellness Program wants to express its gratitude to Georgia Perez, the author of the original Eagle Books, and to the Baros Family for all their insights regarding type 1 diabetes.

And lastly, we acknowledge our great partners on the Eagle Books project, Westat, and Kauffman and Associates, Inc.
For readers who have not read the previous volumes of Coyote and the Turtle’s Dream: the Graphic Novel, the following re-caps tell you what has happened up to now in the story:

Volume 1, The Vanishing

Grandmother Turtle warns Sky Heart and Thistle that the water on the reservation is disappearing because the remains of an ancient turtle ancestor are being stolen. The animals agree that Sky Heart should seek the help of Rain that Dances. That afternoon, Rain and Boomer see their classmate, Jimmy, throw away two strange objects in a trash can. They retrieve the bony-looking objects and Rain takes them home. Later that night, Sky Heart visits Rain in a dream, giving him clues about the vanishing water and pleading with him to “help us.” At school the next day, Rain shows the “bones” to Simon and Hummingbird who agree that they are fossils. Unaware that their school is being watched by a shadowy figure, the four friends gather in the school courtyard where they learn that Jimmy has mysteriously vanished.

Volume 2, The Cave Where the Giants Sleep

Our young friends agree that the fossils and Jimmy’s disappearance are linked. They ask Miss Swallow, the science teacher, for advice. She promises to identify the fossils, warning that fossil poachers may be involved. In the meantime, the boys learn about type 1 diabetes from Arianna, a new girl who will be living with Hummingbird’s family. That evening, they are all puzzled by a speeding truck that swerves past the car driven by Rain’s father. Their stares make Rain suspect they are looking for Jimmy. Unnerved by the “drive-by,” Rain is even more shaken the next day when he and Simon interview his great-grandmother for a school assignment. She tells them a story about the day she and her brother, Delbert, followed a coyote to a mysterious cave at Shell Ridge. Inside, Delbert discovered the skeletons of giant scary-looking creatures. Not thinking, he took a bone from one of the long-dead animals—a bone that Granma now places in Rain’s hand. It is identical to the two bones that Jimmy ditched. Rain doesn’t know what is going on—but he knows the eagle does!

A TRAIL OF BONES
After Granma’s interview, Rain and Simon met Boomer and Hummingbird at the tree stump. As was their custom, the friends took their places at each of the four directions. Quietly they remembered the animals’ messages about the ways of their ancestors, especially about being active and eating healthy food.

When they sat down, Boomer was still thinking about good food.

I’ve got some apples and grapes. Let’s eat and talk. Rain’s got some news. Like what?

Like we’ve got another bone.

Where did it come from?!

Rd’s granma gave it to him.

Listen to the interview we did with granma.

Her brother, Delbert, found that bone in a cave.

A coyote took granma and Delbert to a cave?

This is scary!

Skeletons started twisting in the walls!
I haven’t told you guys yet, but the eagle came to me in a dream.

You’re kidding! The eagle?

Rain made some notes about his dream.

Strange—could the eagle’s cave be the same as granma’s cave?

I sang about twisting bones, too.

This isn’t a coincidence.
LET’S COMPARE THE DREAM AND THE STORY.

AND BRING IN JIMMY, TOO.

THIS ALL TIES TOGETHER.

Yeah, but how?

LET’S MAKE A CHART.

The four detectives labored over their clues.

Bird made rows of the things they had information about—like people/animals; fossils; places; and things that happened.
So, here’s what we think—

The bones come from the same cave at Shell Ridge. The bones look alike. They’re from the same creature.

A guide, that would be Coyote, took Delbert and Granma—and maybe Jimmy—to the cave.

Delbert and Jimmy took some bones, so they are “takers” like in the dream.

Then the wind blew, the skeletons started twisting, and Coyote stood up. Delbert got real scared and ran away.

Maybe Jimmy got scared for the same reasons and ran away, too.

Hmmm.

The eagle sang about something being stolen and the water going away.

There’s a lot we don’t understand about how Jimmy fits into this.

The eagle sang about something being stolen and the water going away.

Yeah, and now he’s disappeared.

Let’s go out to Shell Ridge. Jimmy could have left a clue.

Good idea.

My mom said she’d take us out there to hunt shark teeth.

At least we know why Jimmy ran away.

Right, the coyote scared him.
Later that afternoon, the boys got ready to drive out to Shell Ridge.

WHERE ARE BIRD AND ARIANNA?

Theys couldn’t come.

AND I’VE GOT MY FOSSIL BOOK, SO WE CAN IDENTIFY WHAT WE FIND.

I got some old spoons that’ll help us dig out sharks teeth.

Okay, I’ll be back to pick you up at 3:30.

Aww, mom.

Driving through Thunder Rock, the boys saw that the water problem was for real.

Hey, check out the line at the water buffalo!

STOP!

Mom! Pull into Big Weasel’s! NOW!

Big Weasel’s stolen our healthy food ideas!

That’s not fair to boo--

But, you WANT other stores to copy your ideas.

Let’s see what he’s got.

Later that afternoon, the boys got ready to drive out to Shell Ridge.
The boys reluctantly followed Roberta into the JIF Mart.

HI, ROBERTA!

HI, FRANK.

BOYS, GET YOURSELVES SOME TRAIL MIX.

SHHH--

COOL IT. DON'T GET MOM RILED UP.

WHAT'S IN THE LUNCH?

LOW-FAT MILK,

TURKEY ON WHOLE WHEAT, AN APPLE, AND A GRANOLA COOKIE.

SOUNDS GREAT, FRANK. I HAVE SOME BOOKLETS ABOUT PREVENTING DIABETES. WOULD YOU HAND THEM OUT TO YOUR CUSTOMERS?

SURE, MY BROTHER'S REALLY SICK WITH DIABETES.

I NEED TO KNOW MORE ABOUT IT MYSELF.

HIS BROTHER'S SICK?

GEE--
The boys wished Big Weasel good luck and they all headed for Shell Ridge.
Finally, she spotted the little road where she would drop off the boys.

"Okay, guys, here’s the rules. Follow the trail. I don’t want any broken necks. When you get down to the bottom, stay on the edge of the flats. Okay. Rules, always rules. Sure, mom.

As soon as the car pulled away…

"Let’s look at that flyer. Right."

"Maybe it’s a fossil poacher like Miss Swallow said."

"Let’s call the phone number and find out!"

"Are you crazy?"

"Yeah, like he’ll answer, “fossil poacher!”"

"Just kidding. But what if it is a real science thing?"
but I don't want my number on some bad guy’s caller id.

So, I’ll call from the school tomorrow.

Maybe, he wouldn’t know it was us.

WOW!

Check this out!
At the top of the ridge, Rain, Boomer and Simon looked upon a magnificent landscape.

CAN YOU BELIEVE IT?  THIS LAND IS OUR REZ.

Yeah. I bet kids just like us stood on this spot thousands of years ago.

What is "the flats" anyway?

Makes me thirsty thinking about it.

My dad says it's an old seabed.

The aquifer where our water comes from is under it.

Granma's cave is out there.

Maybe Jimmy is too. Anybody see him?
no, and i don’t see any coyotes either. then, let’s go shark fishing!

The boys could feel the crunch of old sea shells under their feet as they made their way down.
Now I know why this place is called Shell Ridge.

We'll fill these bags with fossils in no time. What's this tube thing?

I found a big tooth-- maybe it's a mosasaur!

Let's see-- that's a crinoid. The book says it's the arm of a sea lily.

Boomer, your's is a 'bi-valve'. Like a clam.

It's bad looking. Is that a shark in that picture?

No, it's a mosasaur. More like a big snake than a fish.

Let's climb up those rocks and see who it is.

Yeah, it's headed this way.

Come on.

Within minutes, a Range Rover came roaring into view and stopped suddenly.
MAKE SURE THOSE SACKS ARE OUT OF SIGHT.

WHAT’S HE DOING?

GET YOUR HEAD DOWN, BOOMER.

HURRY UP, DITTO!

WAIT— I THOUGHT I HEARD SOMETHING.

EEEEEEEEEE-AAAAHHHH

HEY! WAS THAT A--?

COME ON! WE GOT TO GET OVER TO SKY BLUFF!
we ain’t sightseeing! let’s get outta here.

Yeah-- outta here.

is that eagle trying to tell me somethin’?

Do you think he saw us?

Don’t think so.

Let’s check out those sacks he dumped.

What’s this plaster stuff?

Hey! It’s 3:15 already!

were they bad guys?

Oh, man.

We better run! mom said 3:30!

Ignoring Boomer, Rain turned to look at Shell Ridge one more time. He wanted to remember where they had seen the guys with the bags of plaster.
Later that afternoon at Hummingbird’s house...

ARIANNA, has your mother got here yet?

YES, SHE AND YOUR MOM ARE GETTING MORE STUFF OUT OF THE CAR.

Arianna, you know those fossils--

OH YEAH, YOU WERE GOING TO TELL ME MORE ABOUT THAT!

THE ONES THAT WE SHOWED MISS SWALLOW?

ARIANNA’S BEEN TEACHING US ABOUT TYPE 1 DIABETES. HER INSULIN PUMP IS COOL!

OH, YES--

SHE HAS TO EAT THE RIGHT FOODS, GET PHYSICAL ACTIVITY, AND MAKE SURE SHE’S GETTING THE RIGHT AMOUNT OF INSULIN-- EVERY SINGLE DAY.

IMELDA’S REALLY GLAD THAT YOU AND YOUR FRIENDS ARE SO INTERESTED IN DIABETES.

WRITTEN STORY:

Arianna, has your mother got here yet?

Yes, she and your mom are getting more stuff out of the car.

Arianna, you know those fossils--

Oh yeah, you were going to tell me more about that!

It sounds like a real detective story. Where do you think he might have--?

Later.

Here’s bird--

Darlene’s been telling me all about you, Hummingbird.

Well, a boy at school threw them away, and now he’s disappeared.

I wish you could have come with me this morning. We were trying to figure out what happened to him. It’s a mystery.

Arianna’s been teaching us about type 1 diabetes. Her insulin pump is cool!

Oh, yes--

She has to eat the right foods, get physical activity, and make sure she’s getting the right amount of insulin-- every single day.

Imelda’s really glad that you and your friends are so interested in diabetes.
I love sports. I run track—ride my bike— and I play basketball."

HMM. Someone with type 2 diabetes can learn a lot from Arianna about staying healthy.

In a normal range, I can do all the things any kid does.

If I keep my blood sugar in a normal range, I can do all the things any kid does.

Then I might start shaking or feel weak. So, I’ll eat something with sugar in it. Like a peppermint.

Imelda is going to teach us how we can help Arianna if she has an emergency.

Like if I exercise too much, my blood sugar might get really low.

I thought we might go over to the park and see what the guys are up to.

But you’ve got a lot of unpacking to do— I’ll help.

Rain and Boomer probably aren’t doing anything very exciting anyway.
Actually, Hummingbird was wrong. The boys were up to a lot of excitement—the pirate kind.

Jack Sparrow Takes Down Captain Barbossa!

Cough! Cough!

Who showed you that ‘magic move?’

Sam, he’s home on leave.

Man, you flipped me right over. How did you do that?

Cough! Cough!

Sam drew these pictures. They show how it’s done.

Let’s forget about playing pirates and go over the steps, Boomer.

Sure, but easy does it.

Sam says don’t show off—somebody could get hurt.

Like me?

Wow, those holds really work!

From the old concession stand at the park, a boy watched Rain and Boomer playing around.
Ruff, ruff!

Quiet, rocky!

Hey, did you just hear a bark?

Hey, it came from the old concession stand.

Hey, man, where you been?

You got a dog!

JIMMY?!

Yeah, this is Rocky. But never mind him.

I saw you guys take my cigar box!

You better get rid of it--

Or they'll be after you, too!

Yeah, man, you been?
Who'll be after us?

I know! It's fossil poachers, isn't it?!

How'd you find out?

No, only Ms. Swallow.

Does everybody know?

She thinks somebody's stealing fossils around here.

How did you get mixed up with them?

Well, I was selling rocks and stuff at Nelson's rock and smoke shop--

"Making $30 every week to give to my mom for groceries.
Every weekend Rocky and I would go up to shell ridge--

And I found some fossils worth some real money.

One day, I followed this coyote to a cave--"
--where I found some fossils. I started picking up some to see if they were worth anything and that was when--

DID YOU SEE SOME SKELETONS WITH BIG TEETH IN THERE?

DID THEY TWIST AROUND?

HOW DID YOU KNOW?!

BECAUSE MY GRANMA--

YOUR GRANMA?

Yeah, she said her brother saw them.

When she was a little girl, a coyote took her and her brother to that cave.

That's why you didn't look at me like I was crazy.

She saw a coyote, too.

WE WERE RIGHT. THE COYOTE DID TAKE JIMMY TO THE CAVE.

WHAT HAPPENED NEXT, JIMMY?
There was this bad looking dude at the shop. He told me I’d be rich if I’d take him to where I found the fossils.

I said, “No way, man. I’m never going back into that creepy cave again!”

Was that guy mad when you said you wouldn’t show him the cave?

“Ahh--yeah. I’d left my money on the counter and went back to get it. I heard him and Nelson talking. They said they’d make me show them where the cave was and then--they’d get rid of me.”

Like, kill you?

I guess--

We better tell my dad or Chief Willard.

No!

Look! Headlights!

Somebody’s coming.
It’s my uncle Luther!

I’m staying at his house in Sky Bluff.

Promise me you won’t tell anybody about this. I’m afraid they might go after my mom.

You promise?

Um—sure.

Jimmy, what’s the name of that guy at Nelson’s?

Smeed. Vernon Smeed.

Promise me you won’t tell anybody about this. I’m afraid they might go after my mom.

We gonna tell somebody about this, Rd?

Well? Are we gonna tell?

Stop hollering, boom.
Thistle was getting impatient. Someone was late for her meeting.

Rain and Boomer were going somewhere fast.

Yes, very fast.

Where’s Coyote? He’s supposed to be here.

Somebody say my name?

So glad you flew down to join us, Sky Heart. Now we are all together again.

Coyote, I’m going to get right to the point--

Before we start, allow me to give you a present--

What’s this mess?

Jelly donuts, pork rinds, and cream puffs! Complements of the local dumpster.

I don’t eat that stuff.

I know. More for me.
COYOTE, we think your games have dried up the water.

But the humans are to blame, not me. They took the old one's bones.

True.

I have asked Rain that dances to help us return her bones. He's not listening.

Only then will the water flow again.

Rain knows that you led his uncle Delbert to 'the place where the giant's sleep.' You also took the boy, Jimmy, there. You frightened them, Coyote!

They followed me for their own reasons.

Besides, I did not scare Delbert. I only stood up to stretch.

But you have imbalanced the spirit of the land and the people.

You make trouble, Coyote!
Trouble is how they learn!

You did enough tricks in the lands to the south to know that cottontail!

Now look at you. A domesticated "flop-ear."

Come on, have a cream puff, cream puff!

You think I’m tamed? Then, learn from your own trouble!

From one trickster to another!

Ahhh, thistle. Please don’t-- not this time, Sky Heart.

Hmmm, sugarrrr.

Chomp chomp chomp chomp.

Tooth and gum, come, pain, come, find the water, make it numb.

OHHHH, be careful, coyote.

Nooo! Oh not this time, Sky Heart.
OOOO. HURT GOING AWAY--

GLAD THERE WAS A PUDDLE LEFT.

YOU GOTTA WATCH THOSE CREAM PUFFS.

THISTLE'S JUST SO SENSITIVE-- JUST LIKE MY BAD TOOTH.

SHEESH.

WAIT, COYOTE! PROMISE ME YOU WON'T WORK YOUR GAME AGAINST RAIN THAT DANCES.

VERY WELL, EAGLE. BUT I WILL TEST HIM.

SORRY, I LOST MY TEMPER.

HE SHOULDN'T PLAY TRICKS.

THAT WASN'T VERY "TAME," THISTLE.

WITH THE WATER.
The next morning at school...

Mr. Pence, have you seen Hummingbird and her friends?

Is Miss Swallow at school yet?

Let’s find out.

She’s got the report from the university!

Hey, big news, kids!

There she is.

The bones are from a turtle called Archelon ischyros. That’s Greek for “turtle chief.”
yes, about fifteen feet long. she lived about 65 million years ago. she knew the dinosaurs!

it is a turtle!

she is huge!

yes, about fifteen feet long. she lived about 65 million years ago. she knew the dinosaurs!

the science club would like to see pictures.

it is a turtle!
Thanks, Miss Swallow.

We have news, too. We saw these guys unloading plaster of Paris at Shell Ridge. I looked it up. It's used to move big fossils so they don't break.

That's not all. Then we saw Jimmy at the park! Did he say why he ran away? Fossil poachers are after him. Oh, no! You should have told Miss Swallow about this.

No, I promised we wouldn't. So don't say anything yet.

It's your call, Rain.

Brrrrinng! Brrrrinng!

We better get to class. I'll figure this out later.
That night Rain started thinking seriously about what he should do.

Over at Sky Bluff, Jimmy was finding out how dangerous that promise was.

Rain, granma says come and see this big storm on the weather channel!

Jimmy’s at Sky Bluff with his uncle. So he’s probably okay.

But what about the great turtle? The fossil poachers are going to steal her. Then the water will never come back.

What should I do?

Why did I make that promise?

Better read again what the eagle said in the dream.

Why did I make that promise?

All right Margie, I’m coming.

All right Margie, I’m coming.

Better read again what the eagle said in the dream.

WHERE ARE YOU? IT'S GETTING DARK.

WHAT'S THAT?

ROCKY!

ROCKY! NOOOOOO!

LET HIM GO!
Winds are expected to top 150 miles per hour--

--and the storm surge will arrive at midnight.

This storm has been tricky-- since entering the Gulf, the hurricane has picked up strength from the 80 degree surface waters.

The hotter the water, the stronger the storm--

An evacuation order is in effect for the entire coast. Storm waters could extend 20 miles inland.

Will it come here, Granma?

No, Margie, it’s hundreds of miles away. In the Gulf of Mexico.

This couch feels pretty good. I’m tired.

Hmmm, I’m--

So--

Sleepy
Suddenly Rain was zooming through the waters of a warm Cretaceous sea.

WHOA! HAHA, I'M UNDER WATER-- HEY! I CAN BREATHE!

IT'S THE GREAT TURTLE-- I'M RIDING ON HER BACK!
oh man,
look at that giant clam and those starfish.
just like in simon’s book.
WHERE ARE WE GOING?

WE’RE GOING deeper. is that-- is that-- okay?
WHAT'S THAT?
OH, NO--!
IT'S A MOSASAUR!

SWIM.
SWIM.
AAAAAAHHHHH!

GURGLE
GURGLE

FASTER, FASTER!
AAAAAHHHH! HE MISSED!

HELP! I CAN'T HOLD ON!

GREAT-GRANDMOTHER TURTLE! I'M FALLING--

RAIN-- I'M COMING

NOOOOO! DON'T! RUN, GRANMA! RUN!
RAIN--
I'M COMING

GRANMAAAA!
RUN!

RAIN?!
RAIN?!
Rain, wake up!

I was--oh, yeah. Granma, are you okay?

I’m fine. What scared you?

I was in the ocean--riding on the back of this big turtle. This monster was after us.

Um--Granma, there’s something you should know--

Boomer and I saw Jimmy throw something in a garbage can. It was some bones--just like the one that Delbert found.

You mean the boy who’s missing? That Jimmy?

Yes. We showed the bones to Miss Swallow. She found out they’re from this ancient turtle.

Yes, and a coyote led him there.

You better tell a teacher--someone--you saw him. Maybe he’s in trouble.

I’ll tell Miss Swallow in the morning. I promise.
Hey, you want one of Mr. Nelson's donuts? I don't want nothin' from you guys. And you'll get your mutt. Where's my dog? You tell us what we want to know, Jimmy, and you'll get your mutt.
see that turtle? those bones you sold us are from her flipper. she's gonna make us lots of money.

yeah, and i know where she is-- in a cave with lots of other things-- things that move.

we know where there's lots of fossils on your rez.

i'd offer you a cup of coffee, but it's not good for kids.

you'll get 50% of the deal on the turtle and the other $10,000 i owe ya.

how do ya like my wall, jimmy?

well, jimmy, my favorite fossil hunter.

don't worry, i got this thing in the bag.
Looking for your cave--

--Looking for that old turtle.

Yeah, Jimmy, we've been out there at Shell Ridge. Looking for your cave--

Has Nelson ever shown you his fish? He feeds them once a week. They get real hungry.

You ever seen piranhas eat?

Been wasting time looking for you, too.

You're costing me, Jimmy--

Big time.

SPLASH!
"Now pay attention."

"Once the fish smell the rat in the water -- it's all over."

"Just like -- it's all over --"

-- for a little rodent like you, Jimmy.

"Not pretty -- but real entertaining."

"When I catch a rat -- it stays caught."

"It stays caught."

--for a little rodent like you, Jimmy.
I'M NEVER GOING BACK TO THAT CAVE! EVER!

LEFTY! GET ME THAT ROPE IN THE BACKROOM.

NO WAY, SMEED. WE DON'T HURT KIDS.

Yeah, we don't hurt no kids.

IF WE DON'T MAKE GOOD ON THIS TURTLE--I KNOW WHO I'M GONNA HURT!

HMM. THAT'S THE FIRST SMART THING I'VE HEARD YOU SAY, NELSON.

Who else knows about the cave, Jimmy?

Nobody!

Hey, SMEED-- Maybe he's told somebody else where the cave is.

Like his uncle.

I KNOW WHAT'LL GET HIM TALKIN'.

The dog. Where is he?

In the car.
Okay kid--it's the cave or the dog--

We don't hurt no dogs, neither.

Do we lefty?

Great!

The fish are still hungry. Don't guess the rat filled 'em up.

Ruff! Ruff!

You better tell me--or Rocky's fish food!

Stop!

There is somebody!

I got no choice! I have to tell him!

Rain will never forgive me--

About the Native Diabetes Wellness Program

The mission of the Native Diabetes Wellness Program is to work with a growing circle of partners to address the health inequities so starkly revealed by type 2 diabetes in Indian Country. With social justice and respect for Native and Western science as grounding principles, we strive to support community efforts to promote health and prevent diabetes.

For more information about diabetes and diabetes prevention, go to the National Diabetes Education Program’s website, http://ndep.nih.gov. Under “Find Publications for Me,” select the drop down box for “Age” and find “Teens and Children.” Posted are tips for teens with diabetes, and tips for how kids can lower their risk for developing type 2 diabetes.

About the Author

Dr. Terry Lofton is a senior study director at Westat. She has been Westat’s project director for the Eagle Books project since 2002 and has worked in public health for almost thirty years. A former middle school science teacher, Dr. Lofton often drew on the lessons of Native science in her classroom activities. She says that the collaboration with the illustrators of Coyote and the Turtle’s Dream and the Eagle Books project’s many friends in Indian Country has been the highlight of her career.

About the Illustrator

Patrick Rolo, Bad River Band of Ojibwe, draws from his rich Native American heritage to illustrate the Eagle Books. Mr. Rolo’s career includes newspaper, magazine, comic book, and court room illustrations. Also a painter, his works in oil hang in galleries in Minnesota and Washington.
