

CDC'S EPIDEMIC INTELLIGENCE SERVICE (EIS): PUBLIC HEALTH HEROES

*"EIS is the world's best introduction to interventional epidemiology:
finding problems fast and stopping them."*
Tom Frieden, MD, MPH, Former CDC Director

- A 65+ year history of success in training boots-on-the-ground disease detectives
- A training opportunity unlike any other for a career with far-reaching impact
- EIS officers can improve the lives of thousands and effect change in a community or entire country
