

Conditions that Are Disqualifications for Appointment in the United States Public Health Service Commissioned Corps*

1. Diabetes Mellitus: History and/or presence of Type I, Type II, Gestational diabetes mellitus
2. Disorders of calcium metabolism
3. Impaired glucose tolerance/pre-diabetes
4. Human Immunodeficiency Virus/AIDS
5. Chronic Hepatitis B or C
6. Liver cirrhosis (regardless of type or cause)
7. Abnormal liver function studies, jaundice, enlarged liver
8. Syphilis (untreated)
9. Tuberculosis (untreated latent TB; active TB)
10. Asthma: chronic persistent or mild intermittent depending upon symptoms, pharmacologic therapy and pulmonary function tests (PFTs)
11. Blood Abnormalities: abnormal blood counts (white or red cell; platelets)
12. Cardiac: abnormal cardiac rate, rhythm and/or conduction in the presence of organic heart disease; pacemaker or implantable defibrillator
13. Impaired Hearing: hearing loss that does not meet USPHS accession standard
14. Impaired vision: visual acuity not meet USPHS accession standards
15. Pregnancy and the Post-partum period (until either 43 days post-vaginal [uncomplicated] delivery or 56 days [uncomplicated] post-Caesarian section delivery)
16. Obesity: weight in excess of maximum acceptable USPHS weight standards
17. Dyslipidemia
18. Hypertension
19. Abnormal Pap Smear: high grade or advanced intraepithelial lesions; atypical glandular cells of undetermined significance.
20. Abnormal urinalysis results: proteinuria, pyuria, hematuria, glucosuria

*This list is not all inclusive.