

ELC Recipient HISTORY

Since 1995, the ELC has been critical to U.S. health departments' ability to combat infectious diseases. While beginning with only 10 recipients, that number incrementally grew, reaching the current complement of 64 jurisdictions in 2012.

The ELC now awards hundreds of millions each year to its 64 recipients across the nation.

 U.S. territories or freely-associated states.*

FY 1995

8 STATES
CO, GA, FL, KS, MA,
NJ, WA, WV
1 CITY
NYC
1 COUNTY
LAC

5 STATES
HI, LA, ME,
NY, PA

FY 1996

FY 1997

7 STATES
IL, OH, MI,
TN, UT,
VT, WI

8 STATES
IN, KY, MT,
NE, NM,
RI, SD, TX

FY 1998

FY 1999

3 STATES
OK, MO, WY

8 STATES
AL, AZ, CA, CT, IA,
MS, NC, VA
2 CITIES
HOU and PHL

FY 2000

FY 2001

11 STATES
AK, AR, DE, ID, MD,
MN, ND, NV, NH, OR, SC
2 CITIES
CHI and DC
1 TERRITORY*
PR

1 TERRITORY*
PW

FY 2004

FY 2012

6 TERRITORIES*
MH, MP, FM,
AS, GU, VI

ELC
NATIONAL FUNDING STRATEGY

PREVENTING Infectious Disease Threats by Strengthening U.S. Health Departments

WWW.cdc.gov/ELC