Everyone 6 months of age and older should get a flu vaccine every year.

Even healthy kids of any age can get seriously sick from the flu, and they can spread it to family, friends, and others.

Spread fun. Not Flu.

For more information, visit http://www.cdc.gov/flu