Shots aren’t just for kids.

Vaccines for adults can prevent serious diseases and even death. Ask your doctor about what immunizations you need. Because staying healthy at any age isn’t kid stuff.

Vaccines can prevent Influenza (flu), shingles, diphtheria/tetanus, pertussis, and pneumococcal diseases.

http://www.cdc.gov/vaccines/adults