If you have young children in your home, get everyone 6 months and older vaccinated against flu. Approximately 80% of childhood flu deaths happen in children who are not fully vaccinated against flu.

There’s still time to get the whole family a flu vaccine.

cdc.gov/flu/highrisk/children.htm