

www.cdc.gov/ncidod

Series 1 cards made possible by the Global Health Odyssey,
National Center for Health Marketing

Read these cards to learn more about infectious diseases of public health importance.

Test your new knowledge with this quiz.

1. Will an antibiotic cure a viral infection such as a cold or the flu?
2. If you swallow pool or lake water, you could get a _____.
3. Before preparing food, before eating, after you use the bathroom, change a diaper, and after you handle reptiles or anything they touched, you should _____.
4. Anthrax, Legionnaires' disease, salmonellosis, staph and strep infections, TB and ulcers all can be treated with _____.
5. Use insect repellent to keep from getting _____.
7. Wash fruits and vegetables to avoid getting _____.
8. If you are bitten by an animal that could have rabies, what should you do?

Answers
1. No 2. recreational water illness 3. Wash your hands! 4. anti-biotics 5. Lyme disease, West Nile virus 7. giardiasis, E. coli
0157:H7 infection 8. clean the wound, immediately see a doctor