

SESSION 1 – Introduction and the big picture

Introduction to humanitarian emergencies
Types of malnutrition
Overview of nutrition in humanitarian emergencies

SESSION 2 – Rapid assessment of nutrition and food situation

Assessment of nutrition status: rapid nutrition assessment and anthropometry
Case study - Riverina
Discussion of next week's class

SESSION 3 – Weighing and measuring children – practicum

Weighing and measuring children at CDC/Emory day care center

SESSION 4 – Micronutrients

Discussion of weighing and measuring exercise
Micronutrients in emergencies
Vitamin A
Iron
Other micronutrients
Exercise in micronutrient planning

SESSION 5 – Food aid and feeding programs I

General ration
Exercise in ration planning
Infant and young child feeding
Exercise in infant and young child feeding

SESSION 6 – Food aid and feeding programs II

Supplementary feeding programs
Exercise in supplementary feeding
Therapeutic Feeding programs
Exercise in feeding programs

SESSION 7 – Assessment of nutritional status by surveys

Surveys
Case study – Nutrition survey in Badghis Province

SESSION 8 – Surveillance and food security

Surveillance
Food security
Discussion