State and District Participation, Profiles 2014

This map illustrates states and large urban school districts that participated in the School Health Profiles in 2014. States and large urban school districts with weighted and unweighted results are shown.

States with weighted results are: Alabama, Alaska, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Hawaii, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Vermont, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin, Wyoming

States with unweighted results are: Louisiana and New Mexico

Surveyed large urban school districts with weighted results are: Baltimore, MD; Boston, MA; Broward County, FL; Chicago, IL; Cleveland, OH; DeKalb County, GA; Detroit, MI; District of Columbia; Duval County, FL; Fort Worth, TX; Houston, TX; Los Angeles, CA; Miami-Dade County, FL; New York City, NY; Oakland, CA; Orange County, FL; Palm Beach County, FL; Philadelphia, PA; San Diego, CA; San Francisco, CA; Shelby County, TN

Weighted data means that at least 70% of the principals or lead health education teachers in the sample completed the survey. Weighted data represent the state, large urban school district, territory, or tribal government. With weighted data, it is possible to say, for example, "X% of schools in our state offer students intramural activities or physical activity clubs."

Unweighted data represent only the schools that completed the questionnaire.

Uses of Profiles Data

Education and health officials use Profiles data to

- Describe school health policies and practices and compare them across jurisdictions
- Identify professional development needs
- Plan and monitor programs
- Support health-related policies and legislation
- Seek funding
- Garner support for future surveys
