Be someone they can trust.

Other people may have let them down. Take away stigma and make sure people who inject drugs understand their risk for hepatitis A and hepatitis B and the importance of getting vaccinated to be protected for life.