

You are a survivor.

Your story doesn't end here. People who inject drugs are at risk for hepatitis A and hepatitis B, but you can get safe, effective vaccines now that can protect your liver. Ask a healthcare provider or local syringe services program for these shots today.

