

BRT  BUSINESS
RESPONDS
TO AIDS

STOPPING AIDS IS EVERYONE'S BUSINESS

BRTA. Social responsibility. Bottom line impact.

Join a cadre of businesses across the country forging new HIV prevention partnerships to create healthier workplaces and communities.

Benefits include:

- Visibility — leverage a national platform to showcase your efforts in addressing HIV in the workplace.
- Productivity — increase productivity by reducing direct costs associated with extended absence due to illness, turnover, recruitment, separation, and lost institutional knowledge.
- Profitability — garner respect and brand loyalty that can generate financial returns, align to stakeholder needs, and attract positive consumer responses.
- Accessibility — receive access to accurate, timely, and relevant HIV information, resources and peer-based technical assistance.
- Connectivity — link with a diverse network of like-minded businesses and stakeholders.
