

WISQARS Data Visualization Export Data Training: Narrative/Audio Description

Descriptive Text:	CDC Logo. CDC Logo zooms out.
Text on Screen:	Welcome to WISQARS Data Visualization. This tool displays fatal and nonfatal injury data in an interactive, visual format.
Descriptive Text:	Music playing in the background. Animated text and video. Logo for WISQARS. Image of computer Appears.
Text on Screen:	You may find data that you would like to download and export as you explore the tool. Good news! You can download and export a trend table or image of the data.
Text on Screen:	Let's take a look at the topic Suicide. Using the filter dashboard function, filter the data by intent of death by selecting Suicide as the Intent of Death and then selecting Apply Filters.
Descriptive Text:	Orange Box Appears around Suicide Checkbox and around Apply Filters button
Text on Screen:	Scroll to see the different injury-related death statistics filtered by the intent you selected.
Descriptive Text:	Orange Box Appears around Filters: Suicide All Injury Deaths in top left corner.
Text on Screen:	Scroll down further to see suicide data distributed by sex, age, and race and ethnicity.
Descriptive Text:	Orange Box appears around Distribution by Sex, Distribution by Age, and Distribution by Race and Ethnicity.
Text on Screen:	Let's say you want to share the Data by Age with your team. Scroll back up to view suicide data distributed by age.

Descriptive Text:

Orange box around Distribution by Age header.

Text on Screen:

Select the purple Download Button and a box will appear.

Descriptive Text:

Orange box around Download button.

Download pop-Up Box Appears.

Text on Screen:

Here you can choose to export the data by .csv (data table), .jpg or .svg (image).

Descriptive Text:

WISQARS Data Visualization Logo with cdc.gov/injury/wisqars url; CDC Logo in top right corner