

CDC: HELPING IMPROVE HEALTH IN HAITI

5 years after the devastating 2010 earthquake, CDC and the Government of Haiti have made tremendous progress in improving the health of Haitians.

258

Disease
Detectives
Trained

250

Rural Water
Technicians
Trained

ADDRESSING PUBLIC HEALTH PRIORITIES

97% REDUCTION IN CHOLERA
CASES SINCE EARLY 2011

84% TREATMENT SUCCESS
FOR TUBERCULOSIS

83% OF CHILDREN IMMUNIZED
AGAINST MEASLES

PREVENTING AND TREATING DISEASE

8 MILLION

PEOPLE TREATED FOR LYMPHATIC FILARIASIS

1 MILLION

INDIVIDUALS TESTED
FOR HIV EVERY YEAR

300,000

RAPID DIAGNOSTIC TESTS
FOR MALARIA PROCURED