

Measles Soundbyte – Dr. Frieden

Jan 15, 2013

Measles01

This week, CDC is reporting that we've made tremendous progress reducing measles. In fact, in the past decade, more than four million children didn't die because of additional measles vaccination activities. But we have much further to go because there's still far too much measles in Africa, Europe, and other parts of the world.