

No woman should die of cervical cancer

Screening leads to fewer deaths.

More than 50% of all new cervical cancers are in women who have never been screened or have not been screened in the last 5 years.

SOURCES: National Cancer Institute, 2014 and CDC Vital Signs, Nov. 2014, www.cdc.gov/vitalsigns