Motor vehicle crashes are a serious problem in tribal communities. AI/AN people have the highest alcohol-related motor vehicle death rates of all racial groups. AI/AN people use car seats, booster seats, and seat belts at a rate much lower than the national rate.