Baby's Busy Day
Being One is So Much Fun!

Written by Ann Harrell | Illustrated by Allison Valentine
Baby wakes.
Pulls up tall.
Baby points...

MILESTONE
Begins to point to show someone what he wants

TIP
Talk about what your baby wants when he points at something.

Bouncy ball!
Baby helps put on clothes.
Reach and stretch.

Where’s your nose?

MILESTONE
 Begins to put out arm or leg to help with dressing

TIP
Ask your child to label body parts.
Baby bangs spoon on tray.

MILESTONE
Repeats sounds or actions to get attention

Ready set for the day.

TIP
Talk to your child about what you're doing. For example, "Mommy is making your breakfast."
Baby hugs.
Blows a kiss.

MILESTONE
Uses simple gestures like waving or lifting arms to be picked up

Bye bye Baby.
Bye bye Sis.

TIP
As baby moves around more, stay close so he knows that you are near.
Baby gives Moose some lunch.

MILESTONE
Begins to show interest in a doll or stuffed animal

Have a bite. Crunch, crunch, crunch!

TIP
Encourage pretend play.
Baby climbs in Daddy’s lap.

MILESTONE
Pulls up to a stand and gets to a sitting position

Read a book, time for nap.

TIP
Read with your child every day. Have your child turn the pages. Talk about the pictures using simple words.
Baby claps.
Hip! Hooray!
Sis is home.

Let’s go play!

TIP
Play with blocks, shape sorters, and other toys that encourage your child to use his hands.
Baby tries talking too!

Horse says “Neigh!”
Cow says “Moo!”

MILESTONE
Makes different sounds like “mamama” and “bababa”

TIP
Build on what your child says or tries to say, or what he points to.
Baby’s snug.
Tucked in tight.
“Ma-ma-ma.”

Nighty-night.

MILESTONE
Calls parent “mama” or “dada” or another special name

TIP
Help your child feel safe and loved.
Being one is So Much Fun!

Developmental milestones are things most children can do by a certain age.

They offer important clues about your child’s developmental health.

In this story, the puppy shows just a few of the milestones to look for by your baby’s first birthday. There are many more!

Is your baby’s development on track?

Find out by downloading CDC’s free Milestone Tracker app or visiting cdc.gov/Milestones for a checklist of all your baby’s important milestones.

If your baby is not meeting milestones or you have other concerns, act early!

If your child is missing milestones or you are concerned about your child’s development, talk with your child’s doctor, teacher, or other providers and ask about developmental screening.

Don’t wait. Acting early can make a real difference!

Visit cdc.gov/Concerned for more information on how to support your child or call 1-800-CDC-INFO (1-800-232-4636); agents speak English and Spanish.
