

State Profile: Arkansas

Parent-Reported Diagnosis of ADHD by a Health Care Provider and Medication Treatment Among Children 4-17 Years: National Survey of Children's Health* – 2003 to 2011

Survey Question

Has a doctor or health care provider ever told you that your child had attention-deficit/hyperactivity disorder or attention deficit disorder (ADHD or ADD)?

Does your child currently have ADHD or ADD?

In 2007, 7.2% of US children and 10.9% of children in Arkansas had current ADHD, by parent report.

In 2011, 8.8% of US children and 14.6% of children in Arkansas had current ADHD, by parent report.

2007

2011

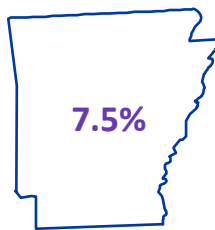

Among all US states, Arkansas ranked 5th highest.

Among all US states, Arkansas ranked 2nd highest.

Is your child currently taking medication for ADHD or ADD?

In 2007, 4.8% of US children and 7.5% of children in Arkansas were taking medication for ADHD.

In 2011, 6.1% of US children and 9.9% of children in Arkansas were taking medication for ADHD.

2007

2011

Among all US states, Arkansas ranked 4th highest.

Among all US states, Arkansas ranked 3rd highest.

* The National Survey of Children's Health is conducted by CDC and sponsored by the Maternal and Child Health Bureau, HRSA: www.cdc.gov/nchs/slats/nsch.htm

