

State Profile: Oregon

Parent-Reported Diagnosis of ADHD by a Health Care Provider and Medication Treatment Among Children 4-17 Years: National Survey of Children's Health* – 2003 to 2011

Survey Question

Has a doctor or health care provider ever told you that your child had attention-deficit/hyperactivity disorder or attention deficit disorder (ADHD or ADD)?

Does your child currently have ADHD or ADD?

In 2007, 7.2% of US children and 6.8% of children in Oregon had current ADHD, by parent report.

In 2011, 8.8% of US children and 7.9% of children in Oregon had current ADHD, by parent report.

2007

Among all US states, Oregon ranked 32nd highest.

2011

Among all US states, Oregon ranked 36th highest.

Is your child currently taking medication for ADHD or ADD?

In 2007, 4.8% of US children and 4.5% of children in Oregon were taking medication for ADHD.

In 2011, 6.1% of US children and 4.6% of children in Oregon were taking medication for ADHD.

2007

Among all US states, Oregon ranked 31st highest.

2011

Among all US states, Oregon ranked 40th highest.

* The National Survey of Children's Health is conducted by CDC and sponsored by the Maternal and Child Health Bureau, HRSA: www.cdc.gov/nchs/slaits/nsch.htm

