

10 Years of Service

National Center on Birth Defects and Developmental Disabilities

Cerebral Palsy Awareness Day 2011

Celebrating Hope and Ability

CDC's National Center on Birth Defects and Developmental Disabilities and Reaching for the Stars. A Foundation of Hope for Children with Cerebral Palsy

Invite you to a special presentation

Thursday Evening, March 3, 2011 | 6:30 - 8:30 PM

Tom Harkin Global Communication Center | 1600 Clifton Road | Atlanta, GA
Doors open at 5:30 for book signing and refreshments.

Special guest speakers Michael Kutcher and John Quinn

Michael Kutcher, twin brother of actor Ashton Kutcher, is both an effective national cerebral palsy advocate and a passionate speaker for Reaching For The Stars. Michael's personal story of living with CP and his journey to overcome challenges in order to live a typical life is inspirational and motivational. Michael is a Sales Consultant for TransAmerica Retirement Services and lives in Cedar Rapids with his son, Jackson.

John Quinn In spite of being born with CP, John was able to not only find employment, but retired at the age of forty after a highly successful twenty-year career in the United States Navy. He is also the author of a new book Someone Like Me. An Unlikely Story of Challenge and Triumph over Cerebral Palsy.

Registration required <http://www.surveymonkey.com/s/CP3-3-2011>

This event is free and open to the public

For additional information please contact
Julia Richardson at 404-498-4054 or Jrichardson1@cdc.gov
www.reachingforthestars.org

"The privilege of a lifetime is being who you are." Joseph Campbell

National Center on Birth Defects and Developmental Disabilities
Division of Birth Defects and Developmental Disabilities

