EBI: Living Independent from Tobacco (LIFT)

- Evidence basis: Pomeranz, et.al
- Purpose: Tobacco use disparities
- Implementation: Training, starter kits recruitment, incentives
- Outcomes: 4 sites, 8 workshops, 30 participants, program well received
- Lessons learned: recruitment, retention, transportation issues

This project was funded under CDC cooperative agreement CDC-RFA-DD16-1603: Improving the Health of People with Mobility Limitations and Intellectual Disabilities through State-based Public Health Programs. The findings and conclusions in this report are those of the authors and do not necessarily represent the official position of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.
PSE: 3D Printing of Adaptive Equipment for People with Disabilities

- Innovative approach to increasing physical activity and healthy eating
- Collaboration with ARISE Independent Living Center and local high school technology class
- Equipment made available to community organizations (YMCA, libraries, housing authorities).
- Sustainability – on-line catalog, Makers Making Change, meetings with organizations (Reach: 1,286 -received information about the project)

This project was funded under CDC cooperative agreement CDC-RFA-DD16-1603: Improving the Health of People with Mobility Limitations and Intellectual Disabilities through State-based Public Health Programs. The findings and conclusions in this report are those of the authors and do not necessarily represent the official position of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.
PSE: Arc Collaborative

- Pilot program to implement PSE changes to increase healthy behaviors at day habilitation sites
- 5 sites; 3 PSE changes each; Reach = 1,845 (individuals and staff)
  - Healthy vending; Wellness committee, updated nutrition guidelines; daily physical activity timeslot
- Organizational buy-in; Staff champions

This project was funded under CDC cooperative agreement CDC-RFA-DD16-1603: Improving the Health of People with Mobility Limitations and Intellectual Disabilities through State-based Public Health Programs. The findings and conclusions in this report are those of the authors and do not necessarily represent the official position of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.
Thank you!

Contact:
Nettie Romanzo-Smith
NYS Disability and Health Program Manager

Nettie.Romanzo-Smith@health.ny.gov

This project was funded under CDC cooperative agreement CDC-RFA-DD16-1603: Improving the Health of People with Mobility Limitations and Intellectual Disabilities through State-based Public Health Programs. The findings and conclusions in this report are those of the authors and do not necessarily represent the official position of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.