

AMENDMENT to the CHARTER of the
ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON CHILDHOOD LEAD POISONING PREVENTION

Structure

The committee shall consist of 13 members, including the Chair. Members shall be selected by the Secretary, HHS, from authorities knowledgeable in the fields of pediatric lead screening, diagnosis, and medical management; laboratory issues; environmental lead hazard detection and reduction; preventive medicine; epidemiology; and public health. At least one member shall be a parent or legal guardian of individuals affected by lead poisoning. The committee shall also consist of nonvoting federal representatives from the Department of Housing and Urban Development; the Environmental Protection Agency; the National Institute of Environmental Health Sciences, National Institutes of Health; the Consumer Product Safety Commission; the Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry; the National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health, CDC; the Food and Drug Administration; the Maternal and Child Health Bureau, Health Resources and Services Administration; the Agency for International Development; and such additional officials of the United States Government as the Secretary deems necessary for the committee to carry out its function. The committee shall also include nonvoting liaison representatives from the American Academy of Pediatrics, the American Public Health Association, the Association of State and Territorial Health Officials, the Council of State and Territorial Epidemiologists, the Association of State and Territorial Public Health Laboratory Directors, the American Association of Health Plans, the American Association of Poison Control Centers, the American Industrial Hygiene Association, and other nonvoting liaison representatives from organizations with interests in childhood lead poisoning prevention as the Secretary deems necessary to effectively carry out the function of the committee.

Members shall be invited to serve for overlapping terms of up to four years, except that any member appointed to fill a vacancy for an unexpired term shall be appointed for the remainder of that term. Terms of more than two years are contingent upon the renewal of the committee by appropriate action prior to its termination. A member may serve 180 days after the expiration of that member's term if a successor has not taken office.

Subcommittees may be established from time to time. The Department Committee Management Officer will be notified upon establishment of each subcommittee, and will be provided information on its name, membership, function, and estimated frequency of meetings.

Management and support services shall be provided by the Office of the Director, National Center for Environmental Health, CDC.
