

NBHAAD 2015: Focused Prevention

Transcript:

Recent data show that our focused prevention care efforts are making a difference: HIV testing has increased and among African Americans who have HIV, more are aware of their infection, and fewer are dying.