

HIV/AIDS, Hepatitis, STD and TB

Common determinants

- Similar or overlapping at-risk populations
- Disease interactions
 - Common transmission for HIV, hepatitis and STDs
 - STDs increase risk of HIV infection
 - Clinical course and outcomes influenced by concurrent disease
- Social determinants
 - Poor access to, and quality of, health care
 - Stigma, discrimination, homophobia
 - Socioeconomic factors, such as poverty

