Contents

Preface
List of Participants

Update on NCHS activities in injury statistics ...................... 1, 1
Lois A. Fingerhut

Update on ICE International Inventory of Data Systems .......... 2, 1-2
Lee Annest, Judy Conn (NCIPC), Sue Gallagher, Saakje Mulder and Mary Overpeck

Uniform Emergency Department Data Set: Project update ............ 3, 1
Dan Pollock

Australian Injury Surveillance Data Standards ...................... 4, 1-6
James Harrison

Hidden drownings: A New Zealand case study ...................... 5, 1-8
John D Langley, PhD and Gordon Smith MB.ChB., MPH

International comparisons of injury mortality databases: evaluation of their usefulness for drowning prevention and surveillance .... 6, 1-29
Gordon Smith and the WET ICE Collaborative Group

Cause of injury coding rules and guidelines in the United States:
The effect on injury data integrity ................................ 7, 1-6
Gerry Berenholz

The need for a Classification System of External Causes of Injuries ... 8, 1-7
Dr. Claude Romer and Dr. Wim Rogmans

Deaths due to fire and flames, Denmark 1988-1992 .................. 9, 1-11
Henning Bay-Nielsen

Utilization of a multiaxial classification in planning, implementing and evaluating injury prevention .............................. 10, 1-10
Birthe Fridt Moller

European Home and Leisure Accident Surveillance System (EHLASS): Evaluation of the classification and reporting system ............. 11, 1-5
Saakje Mulder

Basic Data Set for Accidental Injuries for In-Patients in Norway ...... 12, 1-9
Johan Lund
National Injury Sample Register of Norway ........................................ 13, 1-3
Johannes Wiik and Branko Kopjar

Eliminating injury: an international life table analysis .......................... 14, 1-15
Ian Rockett

Differences in the coding of injury deaths in England and
Wales and the United States ............................................................ 15, 1-15
Cleo Rooney

Injury Data Definitions- The Need for Standards ................................ 16, 1-8
Vita Barell