

2022 HAI Rebaseline Blast Email

Email sent to: all Patient Safety Component NHSN users

Email sent on: August 8, 2024

In preparation for the future release of the 2022 HAI national baseline, we are excited to announce a new training opportunity. Join us on August 20th and August 21st to learn more about the impact that the 2022 HAI Rebaseline may have on your facility or Group's Standardized Infection Ratios (SIRs). Presenters from NHSN's Acute Care Analytic Team and Statistics Teams will walk through some of the early, high-level analyses that CDC has conducted to understand the impact of the new baseline at a national level.

In addition, presenters will provide examples of methods to compare and interpret SIRs from both the 2015 and 2022 national baselines and will discuss how to use SIRs under both baselines to tell the story of your hospital's HAI data. Attendees will be able to ask questions using the virtual Q&A functionality.

Any questions about these webinars can be directed to the NHSN Helpdesk through the ServiceNow portal, using the subject line "2022 HAI Rebaseline". Alternatively, emails can be sent with the same subject line to NHSN@cdc.gov.

These webinars are being offered prior to the availability of new SIR Reports in NHSN under the 2022 national baseline. This training will provide information to help NHSN users feel prepared for the upcoming implementation of the 2022 HAI Rebaseline, scheduled to begin later this calendar year.

We encourage all Patient Safety facility and Group users who analyze SIR data to join this webinar or view the recording at your convenience. The webinar will be recorded and posted on the NHSN Rebaseline website, in the "Education & Training" tab, click here: <https://www.cdc.gov/nhsn/2022rebaseline/analysis-resources.html>

Important Note: This webinar assumes that users have a general understanding of the SIR and HAI Rebaseline concepts. Prior to joining or viewing the webinar, we suggest that users review at least one of the following resources:
