Mental Health Suffers during Pandemic: Support Fellow Construction Workers

Male construction workers have a suicide rate 65% higher than all U.S. male workers¹

In June 2020, 11% of all U.S. adults seriously considered suicide²

In June 2020, 40% of all U.S. adults struggled with mental health or substance use²

Need Help? Know Someone Who Does? Contact the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline

Call 1-800-273-TALK (1-800-273-8255)