December 9, 2010

Hyatt Regency Pittsburgh International Airport

CBRN CRU Panel Discussion

NIOSH-NPPTL Public Meeting to the Docket Number 82A in writing make comments to submit their questions or comments directly NIOSH-NPPTL encourages participants who ask questions or

Docket Number 82A that will be open for public review
All comments and questions shall be officially recorded in the represent
Identity yourself and the company or organization that you making comments
Please use a designated microphone when asking questions or

Stakeholder Input
- Other considerations?
- Capabilities and expanded functionality
- Classification as a new type using new technology
- Combinations of existing types of respirators?

What is the best way to define the CBRN CRU?

Panel Discussion Topics
Panel Discussion Topics

Should there be special cautions and limitations identified?

Should there be restrictions identified?

CRU? Addressed based on expected use of CBRN

What performance parameters should be
Are new requirements needed to address the added capabilities of CBRN CRUs, or do existing provisions need to be considered, modified, or eliminated as obsolete due to new technologies?

What government or consensus standards should address the use of CBRN CRUs?

Panel Discussion Topics
Should CBRN CRUs be required to meet all / any / none of the requirements of NFPA 1981?

NFPA 1981 conformance.
Other types of CBRN Respirators do not require standard.
Approval to all the requirements of the NFPA 1981 NIOSH CBRN Approval for SCBA Requires Panel Discussion Topics