The draft document is a comment form from the National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health (NIOSH) on the feasibility of a study of cancer among former employees of the IBM facility in Endicott, New York. The Docket number is NIOSH-103. The comment asks for contact information and includes a space for comments. A handwritten comment reads: "I'd like to see progress w/ the health study of IBM workers."