

NFPA Protective Clothing and Equipment Standards Development – FY17 (93902XT)

National Fire Protection Association

Objective:

Execution of the Memorandum Of Understanding (MOU) facilitating the partnering, cooperation, and coordination of activities between NIOSH, NFPA and the Fire Protection Research Foundation (FPRF)

Project Scope:

Provide leadership, expertise, research findings, and meeting participation to NFPA fire and emergency services protective clothing and equipment: product performance; selection, care and maintenance; and responder competency standards.

Stakeholders

- Local, State & Federal Fire Service and Emergency Response Departments and Agencies
- Professional Organizations and Labor Unions

Key Partners

- Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) Manufacturers
- Certification Organizations and Testing Laboratories

Applicable NFPA Standards:

1801, 1802, 1851, 1852, 1855, 1858, 1877, 1951, 1952, 1953, 1971, 1975, 1977, 1981, 1982, 1983, 1984, 1986, 1987, 1989, 1991, 1992, 1994, 1999, 472, 473, 475 and 1072

Standards Development Committee Outputs - 2017

- NFPA 1986 Standard on Respiratory Protection Equipment for Tactical and Technical Operations, 2017 Edition
- NFPA 1983 Standard on Life Safety Rope and Equipment for Emergency Services, 2017 Edition
- NFPA 1072 Standard for Hazardous Materials/Weapons of Mass Destruction Emergency Response Personnel Professional Qualifications, 2017 Edition
- BULLETIN >> Firefighter Protective Hoods – Safety Alert
- FPRF Cleaning Validation Study Program Review
- NFPA 1982 Standard on Personal Alert Safety Systems (PASS) – Tentative Interim Amendment (TIA) 13-2

Updated: 18 April 2017