Untreated tooth decay is higher in people who smoke cigarettes

Among adults aged 20–64 years, over 40% who currently smoke cigarettes had untreated tooth decay.

