TOTAL TOOTH LOSS AND CHRONIC DISEASES

Edentulism (having no teeth) was 2x higher in people with:

- Emphysema
- Fair or poor general health
- Heart disease
- Stroke history

Tooth loss is preventable. Primary care providers can educate their patients with chronic diseases about their increased risk for tooth loss, and screen and refer them for dental care.