

PREPAREDNESS & RESPONSE: BY THE NUMBERS

$616

million in annual Public Health Preparedness and Response funds awarded to 62 jurisdictions for 2016

646

CDC responders deployed internationally to fight Zika

21,756

incoming calls responded to from the public; state health departments; clinicians; and hospitals

4

CDC Emergency Operations Center responses at once: Polio, Ebola, Zika, and Flint, Michigan Water Contamination

31,000

Zika Prevention Kits distributed across the U.S. and its territories

25

countries sent public health leaders to CDC headquarters for emergency management training

2,232

federal, state, territorial, and local emergency responders trained on how to receive and distribute products from the Strategic National Stockpile inspections of laboratories registered to handle select agents and toxins conducted by the Federal Select Agent Program in 2015

216

64

peer-reviewed publications and Morbidity and Mortality Weekly Reports published by Office of Public Health Preparedness and Response staff

100

Public Health Emergency Preparedness-funded field staff assigned to 44 different awardee locations in 2016