1. Epidemiology is …
   A. The study of measures and interventions to treat disease
   B. The study of the distribution, determinants, and frequency of disease
   C. The collection, analysis, and dissemination of information
   D. A and B

2. How do you define a case?

3. What is an outbreak and how is one detected?

4. What is the Laboratory Response Network and how many levels does it have?

5. Briefly describe the Incident Command System

6. What is chain of custody?
7. List one similarity and one difference in public health and law enforcement investigative goals and methods

Similarity:
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________

Difference:
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________

8. Define JTTF
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________

9. Of the following answers, which are goals of Public Health, which are goals of Law Enforcement, and which are common goals?
   A. To protect the public
   B. To identify, apprehend, and prosecute the perpetrators
   C. To prevent or stop the spread of disease
   D. To prevent a criminal act
   E. To identify those responsible for a threat or an attack
   F. To protect their respective employees during their response and investigations

Goals of Public Health: _____________________
Goals of Law Enforcement: _____________________
Common goals: _____________________

10. What do you think is the purpose of this course?
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________