

World TB Day 2021 Virtual Event Description

Virtual World TB Day observances are happening around the United States. If you are planning a virtual event around World TB Day 2021, we would like to add it to our timeline. Events will be continually added to the timeline as we approach World TB Day.

Please provide the information below to post on the CDC World TB Day News & Events Timeline. Once the form is completed, please email it to TB INFO (tbinfo@cdc.gov). Thank you!
