

IN 2014,
$186
BILLION

Was Spent on Health Care
Services to Treat
Mental Health
Disorders.¹

44.7 MILLION

Or 18.3% of US Adults 18 or Older Reported
Any Mental Illness IN 2016.²

IN 2015,
8.8% OF ADULTS

Aged 18-64 Reported Visiting a Mental Health Provider in the Past 12 Months.³

1. Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration. Behavioral Health Spending & Use Accounts, 1986-2014. Rockville, MD: Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration; 2016. HHS publication SMA-16-4975.

2. National Institute of Mental Health. Mental illness website. <https://www.nimh.nih.gov/health/statistics/mental-illness.shtml>. Accessed July 13, 2018.

3. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. Data table for Figure 16. Health care visits in the past 12 months among children aged 2-17 and adults aged 18 and over, by age and provider type: United States, 1997, 2006, and 2015. <https://www.cdc.gov/nchs/data/hus/2016/fig16.pdf>. Accessed July 13, 2018.