

About the World Trade Center (WTC) Health Program

The WTC Health Program provides medical monitoring and treatment to eligible Survivors who were affected by the September 11th attacks in New York City (NYC). The Program also provides benefits to eligible Responders at the WTC, Pentagon, and Shanksville, Pennsylvania sites.

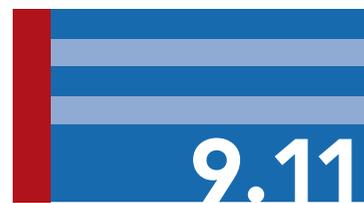

Care for WTC-related health conditions is provided at no-cost to members.

The Program provides these services through Clinical Centers of Excellence (CCEs) for members in the New York metropolitan area, or through the Nationwide Provider Network (NPN) for members across the country.

Today, thousands are receiving these Survivor care benefits for their certified WTC-related health conditions:

- Annual monitoring exams
- Physical and mental health treatment
- Cancer screening
- Benefits counseling

Are you eligible for Survivor care?

WTC Health Program

Were you there?

Were you in the NYC Disaster Area soon after 9/11 for any of the following reasons?

- lived
- worked
- went to school
- attended child or adult day care

Or

Were you present in the dust or dust cloud on 9/11/01?

NYC Disaster Area

The NYC Disaster Area includes the area of Manhattan that is south of Houston St; and any block in Brooklyn that is wholly or partially contained within a 1.5-mile radius of the former World Trade Center site.

And are you sick?

Many don't know that their health symptoms may be related to 9/11. Some common symptoms are:

- persistent cough or wheezing
- constant runny or stuffy nose
- chronic heartburn or acid reflux
- trouble sleeping, anxiety, or depression

Examples of certified WTC-related health conditions include:

- respiratory diseases like asthma and chronic cough
- digestive disorders, such as acid reflux
- mental health conditions like post-traumatic stress disorder
- many cancers

What if I'm not sick?

If you are not experiencing health symptoms, continue to see your primary care physician for annual check-ups and cancer screenings.

Tip: you may want to gather documentation of your presence on or soon after 9/11 so that you are ready to apply if you do become sick.

You may be eligible
